growing with tradition . . .

Headmaster

Mr. Tam Matthews

The Ashbury experience is made distinctive and memorable each year by the people, events and unexpected happenings. Chris Toller, School Captain, and Christopher-Thomas Kelen, Student Council President, and Junior School House Captains were passionate and effective leaders giving us Monday Assemblies to remember. Following the New Student Chill Day, Camp Otterdale, and the Ice-Breaker Picnic, we celebrated the official opening of the Great Hall and new facilities on October 1. In 2002, Hilary Kilgour and Bavidra Mohan were students who helped define student needs and our vision for spectacular learning and social spaces. From the girls locker room to new classrooms, gymnasiums and our bright spacious dining hall we are all indebted to our visionary students and our supportive parents and alumni who made these improvements possible. As always, it is the students and staff that put life and vitality into our school experience as recorded in these pages. From Island Inferno Dances to the musical, 30-hour famine, powerful theatre and sensational moments in sports, this was a successful year.

One faculty member, Jane Kennedy, is retiring after 32 years of teaching, coaching and guiding students and parents through their Ashbury years. Mrs. Kennedy has seen many changes since she was the first female teacher to be hired prior to Ashbury going coeducational. Mrs. Kennedy is responsible for the success our girls and boarders enjoy in 2005. She sets a high standard for dedication and loyalty and will be missed next year.

Finally, we extend our sincere thanks to the yearbook editing team and their faculty advisors, Mrs. Rust and Mrs. Ford. Their many hours of hard work have produced this superb 2005 Ashburian. Enjoy!

Assistant Headmaster Academics

Mr. Malcolm Mousseau

Dear Students,

A good education consists of caring and sound teaching combined with the student's will and capacity to learn through the use of different resources. It also involves many enriching experiences in a stimulating environment. This year, I was impressed with your enthusiasm and maturity in the many school-related events, such as International Day, theatre productions, music concerts and debating tournaments. Events like these, and others, became opportunities for you to discover the links between your classroom experiences and every day life. Your actions demonstrated that many lessons were learned. This year, the Canadian Educational Standards Institute praised our academic programme for its focus on developing critical thinking skills. Thinking back to your classroom experiences in 2004-2005, you might ask: how often did I use higher order thinking skills (such as evaluating, comparing and contrasting, drawing conclusions, predicting, seeing patterns and recognizing hidden meanings)? Having walked by many classrooms and having visited several this past year, in my opinion much higher order thinking went on at Ashbury College.

Thank you, teachers and students, for all your hard work.

Sincerely,

Malcolm R. Mousseau,

Assistant Headmaster Daily Life

Mr. Peter Ostrom

Student Leadership: What does it look like? A few words are sufficient: taking responsibility and taking the initiative. Whether an elected member of the student council, a prefect appointed by the school community or a grade 9 student raising funds for Tsunami relief, the common characteristic is the motivation to take some course of action that moves others to action. Add a good measure of passion and commitment, and the result is magnified. Confidence is the ingredient that lubricates this process. Embodied in the school's core values are the wish, hope and expectation that all students will create the opportunity, by the time they graduate, to take the initiative and the take the responsibility for something important or of interest to them.

School Captain

Christopher Toller

The 2004-2005 school year was amazing. I had the privilege to work with a fantastic team of Prefects that always kept me on my toes. Thank you and congratulations for everything that you guys managed to accomplish during the busy Ashbury life. To the grads, my time at Ashbury with you has been great. You have all had lasting impressions on me that I will always remember. To the undergrads, live everyday you have to its absolute fullest because high school is a great time in your life. I worked hard on all your names with some success! To all the Junior School boys, it was great to get to know you and remember that you can accomplish anything you set your heart to. Teachers, Housemasters, Mrs. Noonan, Mr. Holman, Mrs. Jowett, Mr. Ostrom, and Mr. Matthews – I would never have been able to get through the year without your support. Thanks mom, dad and sis for all your help and hugs through thick and thin – I love you so much. It has been a pleasure. Good luck to next year's Capt'n. Over and out – Chris

Student Council President

Christopher-Thomas Kelen

Since grade nine, I knew that I wanted to be President. It has been an honour. From trying to make change in the school, to organizing fun events, I've had a lot of fun and have learned not only about this school, but myself. Big thanks go to the entire 2004-2005 council. You guys have been unbelievable. Crupi, you've been an amazing VP. MAP, I could not ask for a better Faculty Advisor. Julian and Harrison- I hope you're both President one day. High-school highlights: Wild times in grade 9 Drury. Booth, we made it out of the closet. Good times at Pemi, Tremblant, open houses, Cancun, tubbin' at AKs, downtown, sens games, football, hockey championship, gr 10 rugby, summer camp and much more. Serving as President I've become stressed, and it is my friends that really kept me in the game. GB, JP, JK, AD, DR, AD, AK, McB, CB, CN, SR, AR, AK, JR, NA, AH, DT, JLS, AW, JS and so many more people I love you all. Big shout out goes to all my friends in younger grades, teachers and coaches that made a difference and all the girls that made me smile at one point or another. To my family, your support and love has been more than appreciated. Live every day to the fullest, and never be satisfied with mediocrity.

It was a heck of a ride, and I drove most the way. Too few characters to be diffuse so i'll get to it. In 11 it was IB, soccer, cars, irrepressible longing for Friday and then a girl. 12 was wrought by all these, but mostly a girl. It would be wrong to end without a shout-out or two, so here they go- to the teachers, friends, and Jenn thanks for it all.

4 yrs. of boarding finally over. I had a great time. I grew up at this school and I will never forget the friendships that I have made. Word to my homies R.H., N.M., S.M., A.S., A.R., P.D., and anyone I forgot for all the fun times in boarding, and in Orleans. You're all dear to my heart and straight out of Compton.

Two years of Boarding Life can be described as life of elegant ease. Midnight delivery, late to meals, and ski trips are unforgettable memories. I would like to thank my friends (including communists), my family(including James), and my teachers. I love you all and hope you have wonderful lives. I can't believe I am supposed to be grown up soon. I don't know enough, have little ambition or passion, am scared of everything. Don't try to be better, or best, just try to make something good. Do not let fear make your decisions for you.

Three years at Ashbury filled with memories, some good some bad. Thanks to my friends for keeping me sane (well mostly), I love you all. And Ai Rei from DLS, because she's always around. I'll miss everyone next year as well as all of our pointless conversations and ridiculous inside jokes. Loved Theatre, Germany was fun. It was a good three years, but I'm ready to leave. I fear, with some regret, that my high school career has ended. As I sit and look behind, I witness its passing: images of friends and family – each face as important as the last. To those who walked with me years ago to those who bid me farewell at the inevitable forked roads ahead, I can only give my t h a n k s . “Farewell, Cassius. If we do meet again, why, we shall smile; if not, then this parting was well made.” – Brutus

1st and foremost to my fam for always being there. MOM, DAD & TONY I luv you more than anything. Thanx to all those teachers that taught me something & to all my friends for making it special: cuzin/ bf Nath, TEAM est. 2000, PIAS, JD, Kris & Mon: breakfast/sitoos, Aly: CC, CF, Fong, BSC, DD, SG, Benjamin, Hali-remember there always ways around the system Find them. The last four years have been some of the best times ever. When I look back, I'll remember inside jokes (Julia + Laura vive la resistance!), friends, music class (Mr. T, for having misplaced faith in my playing abilities), Italy Trip (Lucas remember the lesson of the pillow!), Bio Trips, and most recently MUSICAL and everyone in it! (Jenny, P. Sly, GG, ML, RG, AF, GP, LH, CA, AE, SA, RR, RS, MC, PF, AC, etc... Thank you Mr. C and Mr. M!) The important thing isn't that it's over but that it h a p p e n e d .

“It is not about how you start; it is about how you finish” thanks to: Mr. P, Mrs. K, Mr. N, Mr. Pullum, Mrs. Noonan, family, my sister, Muditha, Mohammed S., Dennis L., Wassim, Cyrus, Nikhil, Ahmed, Tommy, Chris, Ryan K., Paully, Scotty, Z, Jana, Tasneem, Jung Han and Young J, Collin N., Mini Alex, Mr. Chapman, Mr. Z, Mrs. Defossés, Mr. Boulet. To everyone keep ya head up! I wish the best in your life Peace out...

Asif Hassam

I was here. You don't know me. You never have and never will. Lets keep it that way. I worked here for six years to get to where I am now. I will not say that it was wasted time. The teachers aren't too bad, the school design seems a bit obscure, and I'm not so sure about what lives in the kitchen. I was here; now I am not. Let's keep it at that shall we!

Vard Heatherington

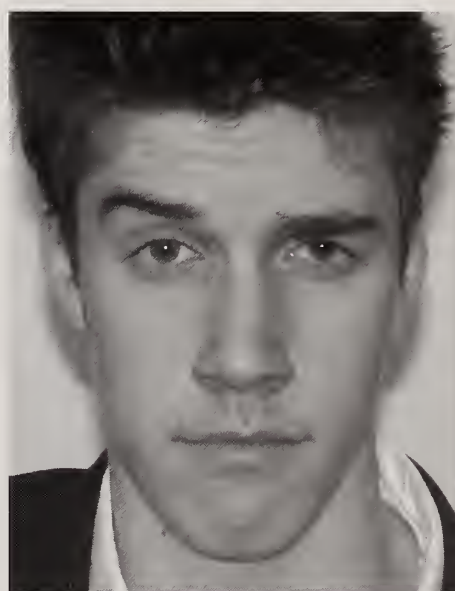

I would like to express my appreciation to all those who have contributed to my pleasant years at Ashbury College.

Graduations can be bittersweet, Reminding us of all that's come and gone: All our battles: lost or won, Days of joy and days of pain. Underneath our pride there is a sense, Almost like a wound of something past, The image of a time that wont last, In which we shared this innocence. Open vistas lie before our eyes; Now is the time for future hopes and for goodbyes. -As this chapter of my life comes to a close, I can't wait for the next one to open. Ashbury: It's been a time. Car rally, bday surprise party, Cancun and frequent 'social get togethers' in ur basements! I will never forget! Danke an JOS und CS für die Unterstützung & die Möglichkeit die ihr mir geboten habt! Most importantly: Thank you Sarah for making it all complete! Love you!

In my 3 years here, I enjoyed the small amount of time that I spent on-campus. I won't forget the countless lunchtime pizza parties at my and Luke's house, the camping trips (especially the dance parties with the Rev and Aly - "do you go Ashbury?"), intense French parties, Danyal movies, escapes to Pizza Hut, evenings on Messenger, DDR showdowns, and making The Fleece Vest with Kathryn and Becky! Thanks to all who had faith in my Jetta. Actually, that was just Andrew.

Mom, Dad, Claire, Jocelyn & Laura I love and will miss you all so much. Ren- it's just been too much fun. Stef-you always know how to keep it interesting (in a good way). Sarah-you've been there from the start. We've all had our moments but I wouldn't have missed this for anything, I love you. Danial-you're a great friend. Mich and Vicki-miss you both-kisses! Everyone else- it's been fun.

The past four years taught me a lot. I learned to love. I learned that pretending to be happy doesn't make you happy and pretending to be smart doesn't make you smart. I learned that sometimes what you want most you just can't have. I learned that it's ok to ask for help, and complain to friends for a whole day. Most importantly, I learned that my friends and family are the most important people to me and without them I wouldn't be who I am today.

Dear comrades,
I'd like to thank God and my mother for giving me the opportunity to study in Ashbury College. Junior Football

The Ashbury Colts junior football team's season was very promising. With Lorenzo running the ball, Jake throwing it, Beck and Will catching it, Timmy returning it, a solid defense, and yours truly kicking the extra points, we had something special. Our season began with a heartbreaking loss to St. Pete's. After that first mistake we won the remaining games. These 5 included a 20-0 shutout over city champions St. Mark's, and a 50-yard run for a touchdown after a catch that gave us a last second 1-point win over St. Matt's team. The regular season ended with Beck breaking his arm and Timmy breaking some kind of record with a 100-yard punt return for a touchdown. Following a huge scandal for St. Mark's, we ended up placed second in the east, right behind St. Pete's. A 35-0 blowout over Sacred Heart meant that we played St. Mark's in the second round of the playoffs. We were close at halftime, but ended up losing 34-15. The team would like to thank coaches Colton, Avery, Max, John, Al, Shamy, Jacobs, and Beltran for their teaching and inspiration. 6-2. 205 points for, 70 points against. Good luck next year boys. -Tommy Brothers

Senior Football

Ashbury Colts started the 2004 season with a bang, beating Notre Dame Ajax 34-14 in the Kickoff Classic at Landsdowne. Ashbury started the season playing St. Peter's. After a hard-fought game, Ashbury lost 14-7. The team then won their next three games. These three victories put the team in a great position to get into the playoffs. The team lost their final two regular season games, but had secured a spot in the playoffs against St. Mark's, the top-ranked team from the West. The playoff game was played on a fall afternoon, perfect weather for Ashbury's running attack. As the game went on, and the teams battled back and forth, it was clear that it was going to be a close finish. In the final minute, St. Mark's lined up to kick. St. Mark's kicker got just enough on the kick to score a single, and Ashbury ran out of time, losing the game 8-7. As the senior football careers of so many Ashbury athletes came to a close, the strong play of so many players is a testament to the integrity and character of this team. While the season ended before we had achieved our goal of winning the city championship, the players have no reason to hang their heads, knowing that they represented the school with pride, humility, and dignity. -Coaches Pinches, Moore, Guarisco, Deacon, and Gray

This year's team consisted mostly of Grade 9's, with just a few returning veterans from last year. It was a tough season, although we had many close games, including a well-deserved draw against a solid team. Thanks to Mr. Uko and Mr. Riddick for coaching us this year. They helped us improve our skills and taught us how to work as a team. We had lots of fun and hope to see continued fan support for junior boys soccer in years to come.

Led by our 'cracking good' coaches Mr. McKirdy and Mr. G. Taylor the Senior Boys soccer team completed an extremely successful season culminating with a great showing at the OFSAA soccer finals in Sudbury in June. We also had a good showing at the CAIS Soccer Championship in Lennoxville, finishing second in the more relaxed division. Thanks to our sizeable fan base who made it out to all our games and especially to Gareth Pugh who unfortunately just missed the final player selection but graciously contributed as team photographer and nurse. Good luck to all returning players and coaches.

The Ashbury Junior Girls Basketball team had an excellent season. The team was comprised of five returning players and seven rookies. The team played 10 regular season games and earned a 9-1 record. In tournament play, which was a higher level of competition, the team had a 2-6 record. With 18 games of experience, the Ashbury team prepared for a very competitive playoff round. In the preliminary game, the team defeated A.Y.Jackson on home court. The quarter-final game proved to be one of the closest of the season as Ashbury defeated Sacred Heart 39-38 in the dying seconds of the game. Ashbury continued to work hard in the semi-final game, defeating Immaculata by 3 points in overtime. The Tier 2 Championship game featured undefeated John McCrae vs. Ashbury. Despite a hard fought effort, Ashbury lost 30-27. The Ashbury Junior team represented the school with class. Their sportsmanship, work ethic and commitment were outstanding. There is a bright future for all of these athletes.

Senior Girls' Basketball

The 2004 Senior Girls Basketball team had a great season, although lacking in numbers the team was never lacking in continuous effort as they showed growth every step of the way. Throughout the season all the players were able to step up and contribute to this relatively inexperienced team. The season opened by christening the new gym with a big win, the girls continued playing well, finishing with a record of 7 and 3. Unfortunately the girls fell short of winning the 'A' city championships in a tough game, placing second in Oawa; however the great fan support was appreciated. The team owes all of their success to their great coaches Mr. Sparks and Mr. MacKinnon who constantly supported, encouraged and challenged everyone, pushing the team to improve and perform to the best of their ability. The team would like to say goodbye to the grads wishing them well in all their future endeavors, and good luck to all the returning players.

It has been a great season, Thanks Girls.

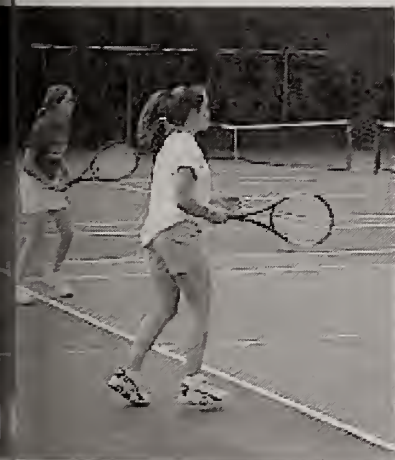

Field Hockey

This year's field hockey team had their most successful season in their short four year history. The team was first place in the East Conference and were the only team in all three divisions to have a loss free season, heading into playoffs with a 5-0 record. They had a bye in the first round and defeated South Carleton 1-0 in the quarter finals. Unfortunately, a 2-0 loss to SRB on the turf at Minto field halted the team's quest to play in the City Finals. SRB eventually won the championship against Earl of March. The coaches, Ms Duggan, Ms Denison and Ms Munro-Collins were really proud of the hard work, dedication and "coachability" the entire group displayed this year.

Tennis

tennis teams had a successful season. During the regular season, the A team placed second in the east and qualified most of the team for the City Championship tournament. Silver medals were won by Alex Hunt and Amanda Garbutt in Mixed doubles and Alex Grand and Ayaka Ishikawa in girls doubles. Bronze medals were won by Nikhil Jha and Karan Bakhshi in boys doubles and Julia Jones in girls singles. The B team placed third in the East and advanced to the City Championship tournament girls singles and girls doubles. Caroline Boulous won the gold medals in both girls Singles and Nisha Hazra and Stephanie Grand won the gold medal in girls doubles. The girls team won the overall B division girls shield. Congratulations to all members of both teams on a very successful and enjoyable season. Best of luck to the graduating team members Jeremy Runnals, Andrew Kelly, Nikhil Jha and Karan Bakhshi.

Cross Country

The x-country running team started with a few dedicated members who through their enthusiasm and prodding, managed to recruit a full team by mid season. For a change we experienced bright sunny skies and balmy weather at each of our three fall competitions. We will fondly remember the aborted attempt to get to our first meet, where we had to be rescued by Mr Sparks from the side of Hwy 417. The emphasis this year was building a good base and working as a team to displace our competitors. The team members worked through grueling practices during the fall weather to improve individual competitive skills and hone our team strategies. Most memorable this year was the push-ups, the ultra competitive passing drills, and the awe inspiring 'look' of concentration as the senior boys and members sprinted down their finishing stretch. Thanks to our coaches and competitors for a great season.

Rowing

This year, the rowing club experienced a huge surge in popularity! Could it be due to Canadian Olympic success in the summer of 2004? Perhaps, it was due to the outstanding Fall weather. Warm sunshine always seemed to greet rowers as they converged on the Ottawa Rowing Club three days a week. Since there were so many newbies, basic instruction was the focus of the sessions. Catching crabs and maintaining balance was an on-going challenge. The season culminated with an interschool challenge, racing from "bridge to bridge." Due to a scheduling mix up, Ashbury placed first and second in the first race. Of course, Ashbury manned the only two shells! Success was broadened in the second race, however, as Ashbury trounced the competition winning handily on the cool, Hallow's Eve morning. The success bodes well for an outstanding Spring, as the now-experienced rowers hit the waters of the local competitive circuit.

Junior Boys' Basketball

The junior boys basketball team played in Tier 1 this year, and as they faced the top teams in the city from Ottawa's largest schools, they certainly had their work cut out for them. Captain Jake Ruddy and all-star guard Tim Grey led the team, Jake with his solid defensive play and Tim with his speed and ball handling skill. The team's best result was a semi-final finish at the Sir Robert Borden tournament, including a 2-point win over Hillcrest. Tim Grey was selected to the tournament all-star team and also represented Ottawa East in the city all-star game at the end of the season.

Senior Boys' Basketball

the future of our season did not look overly promising after we had only 5 people show up to the first practice. The senior men's basketball team, however, overcame this mild obstacle going 7 - 3 in league play. Our grade 10's stepped up to the challenge of playing at the senior level and were contributing factors throughout the season. Eric "Bones" Plaskacz lead the charge for the Colts as starting point guard. Greg "GBlock" Black will be remembered for altering shots. The young team looked for leadership from veterans Andrew "King" King, and after contract negotiation, Nael "The Bomb" Alsaffar. In post-season play, the Colts travelled to Belleville where we defeated Quinte Christian to capture the OFSAA birth. Seeded 9th at the OFSAA, we played 3 seed and eventual gold medalists Rockway Mennonite where we lost by 3 at the buzzer. We won our next game, which put us in the quarterfinals against the #1 seed. After a hard fought game, l'Essor came back to win due to a foul shot, and they advanced to the final. We had great success this year with a variety of players. Coaches MacKinnon and Plaskacz are to be commended for their hard work and dedication toward developing our team into what we were at the end of the season. Good luck to graduating players Nael Alsaffar, Charlie "One Year Wonder" Pollock, and Andrew King. To the returning players, always remember to "do it early."

Hockey

After losing Andrew Syrett to Junior 'B', we had a dismal outlook on our season. However, with captain Kwesi Bourne and his assistants Fresh Ross and C-T Kelen, we dismantled teams mentally, physically. We battled our way through the season and finished with an admirable 6-3-1 record. With a culminating, emphatic goal scored with 0.4 seconds left in our second last game, we were entering the post-season in 3rd place. After obliterating Beatrice Déloges 7-3 and 8-4 in the semi-finals, our team seemed to come together and flourish with the unexpected standing-on-head technique perfected by our rookie goalie Chris Sroka in the playoffs. With a booming crowd of 4, the Colts were cheered on to a 4-3 victory and the graduating players Cam Black, Cueball Kelen and JP have finally been blessed with a championship after years of arduous practices with Rev. Ham, Mr. Nehmi, Mr. Moore.

Nordic Skiing

The Cross-Country ski team enjoyed a good year. Marta and Marie both enjoyed a first exposure to the cross-country ski race adrenaline, and competed very well in the novice girls' category. Alex learned how to ski in an astonishingly short six weeks and competed well in the novice boys' category. He said after his first race "snow cold." Graham competed amazingly in the novice boys' category. He won the race by an impressive amount and a nice shiny gold medal to prove it. I competed in the junior boys' category, which was highly competitive and full of club skiers. I raced quite well, and finished 6th in the race giving me a qualifying position for OFSAA. I went to OFSAA, which was held at Duntroon Highlands, Collingwood, and had a generally amazing experience. Cross-country skiing is a truly enjoyable sport. You build body strength, amazing endurance, meet great people, and acquire a flashy vibrant spandex full-body suit. We would like to thank Mr. Beedell for his great coaching, sense of humor and his ability to show us mouse holes around trees during practices. See you the best next year!

Since skiing is not something the team can practice too well at the school, we train during the week at Camp Fortune on Mt. Cascades. The Ashbury Ski Team depends a lot on the coaches to organize and come out to the training nights and races. Thanks to Mrs. Matthews and Mr. Beltran for making sure we formed the best ski teams we could, allowing us to get some great results.

The novice girls placed first at their championship and the boys placed third. Since they have never raced before, this is an excellent result. At the NCSAA Championship, the boys won gold medals in Giant Slalom and, with the girls, won the overall school combined trophy. The level two boys placed 3rd overall, just two points away from qualifying for OFSAA. The level 2 girls' team charged to victory with the championship and qualified for OFSAA. Brigid also qualified for OFSAA to the level 1's.

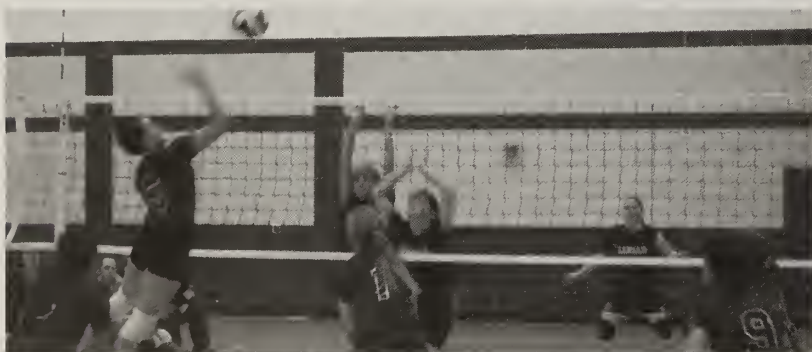

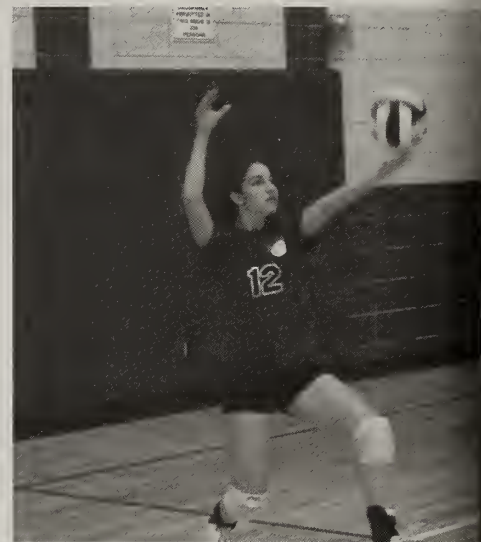

With Mrs. Matthews' coaching, we placed 2nd in the Giant Slalom race to win OFSAA silver medals. The team has seen graduating racers this year: Andrew Kelly, Andrew Mutter, Andrew Syrett, Brian Peebles, Brigid McCallum, Fred Schroeder, Gonzalo Prados, Julianne Purcell, Kate French, Mike Cestnik, and Karine Tawagi. Hopefully next year we can find replacements to follow in their line . . . tracks.

Thanks for the past four years,
Kate French and Andrew Syrett

Junior Girls' Volleyball

The Junior Girls Volleyball Team had a successful season this year. Thanks to our skillful and committed coaches (Gomme, Mrs. Holman, and Mr. Miedema) and the extraordinary talent of our players, we finished our regular season with a 7-3 record and a silver medal from Ashbury's first volleyball tournament. Unfortunately in the first round of playoffs, despite a remarkable comeback from a 2-0 game, we were defeated in a hard-fought fifth game. It was a disappointing loss but the achievements of this team should not be forgotten. Thanks again to the coaches and best of luck to next year's team.

Senior Girls' Volleyball

If a few words could sum up our season, it would be "Woo Volleyball Yaya Woo woo"! Though it was not the most successful season (losing in 'A' city finals to Elmwood), we improved a lot, and the returning players will make a solid team next year. Thanks to the infamous "bring it on" speech from Mrs. Marshall, the warm up tag, and the DANCE MOVES, and just that. To the grads, Sarah, Aly, Kathryn, Hilary, Jackie, and Jacquie, we'll always have setter dumps and the tag game. To the returning players, Natasha, Tamara, Maria, Laurence, Jenna, Iona, and Elli... good luck! Finally and most importantly, thank you to Mr. Miedema, Mrs. Marshall and Miss Johnston for all their dedication and hard work.

Missing: Alex Loiselle, Mr. Nehme

The junior boys' volleyball team started the season without any experienced players. Getting together shortly before the season, the team improved their skills tremendously. The team led by the captain and setter, Kevin Zehn, quickly learned to set up many awesome plays with great passes from Ian Mutter, Jeremy Lockwood-Menard, Adam Scotti, David Evershed, and Alex Loiselle. James Gwozdecky with Harrison Niznick, kept the ball on the opponents' side with their blocks, and David Wiener spiked the ball with the most power. Daniel Cherney and Bank Thanabodee had the killer serves, and Dean McRobie played the offside position throughout the season.

Although the season ended without an Ashbury win, the team placed third overall for points, a huge accomplishment for such a new team. With many sets ending with scores of 27-25, the team never lost their enthusiasm on the court. The team developed a lot of confidence and basic volleyball skills, and for the next season, the boys are set on a 10-0 record!

Thank you to the coaches: Ms. Johnston, Ms. Sosnowska, Mr. Nehme, and Andrew Mutter for his dedication to the team and very reputable refereeing!

Good luck next year!

Track and Field

The 30 members of the track and field team had a stellar season in 2005, competing in the Lisgar Relays, East Regional, City Championship, East OFSAA and OFSAA. The team had a solid showing in the city championship. Special mention to Mike Campanale, Grade 9 who helped our senior boys 4 X 400m qualify for East OFSAA. Ali Cameron-Vendrig, Chris Perry, Andrew Clark, Kiki French, Andrew King, Emily Manley, Andrew Mutter and Justin Steinburg all qualified for East OFSAA. Special mention to our boys 4 x 400m relay team for their determination and congratulations to Ali Cameron-Vendrig for qualifying for OFSAA in the Junior Girls 200m.

The junior boys' rugby team had a marvelous year. At the start of the season we did not know what to expect, the team was a bit shaky. Throughout a very successful regular season the team came together. As a result of the coaching we were able to achieve great things. The regular season was finished with a 5-0 record (meaning that we lost no games during the regular season). Mr. Beltran is a superb rugby coach, and with the great support of the forwards coach, Mr. Ostrom, we had an impeccable season. The leadership core of this team was excellent. The 4 captains of the team were Tommy Brothers, Julian Mirksy, Russell Garber and William Cadham. These players saw us through the good times, and the hard times. Without their great contribution to the team, we would have surely collapsed. I would just like to say on behalf of all of the players moving on to the senior program, we miss you all. We are looking forward to a great rugby season next year.

The Senior Boys' Rugby team has had their most successful season in recent years. The team has advanced to the A/AA city championship against Immaculata and the team hopes to qualify for OFSAA. The tour to the Cayman Islands was a great start to the season, and upon our return to Ottawa it was obvious that the extra playing experience would pay off, with memorable wins against Col By and Kitsilano (Vancouver touring side), as well as a last minute loss to perennial CAIS powerhouse St. Andrew's College. At the time of writing the team's record is 8 wins 6 losses and 1 tie.

To start things off, thanks to the monosyllabic coaching squad: Boyd, Hutch and Gomme – could have done it without you. CAIS champs, six years and counting. Undefeated in the regular season with much more to come ... Vets – setting the tone, day in and day out from the crushing 2-3 to the 50 yard runs that redefine the term “trailing forward”. Great heads in the backs, great heart in the forwards. Rookies – who knew that grade 9 and 10s could make all the difference. Good luck in '06 – young is the new old. Work hard, play harder. Rugby. Jr. Girls' Soccer

Ashbury's junior girls' soccer team has never proven to be so tough. Upon returning from March Break the girls embarked on a rigorous try-out schedule involving skill drills and house runs. Once the team was formed, the girls only had a single team practice before their first season game. The team was also lacking crucial components, ie: a goalie. Maria Beaumaster and Natalie Sachrajda began rookie training as the team goalies, and Maria was thrown in nets for the first season game. She broke the ice with a shut out against Samy G and the team pulled together with an outstanding 4-0 victory. As the season progressed, the girls embodied the key characteristics of a winning team and continued to improve on their skills and develop friendships. Mr. Taylor proved effective as we finished the regular season undefeated and first in the east division, five wins and one tie. Every player's distinct attributes played a key role in our successes; from

Elyse's ability to appear whenever the ball was near the defense and boot it right back up to Lydia's outrageous left-footed shots in perfect placement on net. Our hardcore house runs and excursions to Piccolo Grande prove the junior girls' soccer team epitomized the capacity to have fun while working hard and finishing on top. The regular season domination has been memorable, and the play-offs are only about to begin. To the rookies: you know what you're defending next year. To the vets we know we'll miss this, but don't fit, we'll all meet again to annihilate et another league. Thanks so much to the coolest coach ever: Mr. G. Taylor – STAR WARS 4 LIFE. It's been unforgettable.

The senior girls soccer team enjoyed a fairly successful season this year. The team consisted of players of varying levels of experience, and the team experimented with a number of formations during league play. The last game of the season was our best performance when Ashbury met the eventual season winners, losing a hard-fought battle in a game which could have gone either way. At the sports banquet Iris E (most valuable player) and Karine Tawagi (most improved player) were deservedly honoured for their contributions to the team during the season. Krista Zeidan was also honoured with an inaugural award for contributions to the girls' soccer program at Ashbury College.

To the graduating players: Monica Kajjouni, Caroline Murphy, Jaclyn Sanderson, Karine Tawagi, Erin Taylor and Krista Zeidan, thank you for supporting girls' soccer at Ashbury.

Big hits, big whiffs and plenty of hard nosed ball.

The boys of summer were back full swing as Ashbury baseball had another solid year in 2005.

With a lot of fresh faces, we struggled in the first half of the season but came on strong for the final four games. At press time the season was not yet concluded but the playoffs are in our sights.

Much thanks to Coach Coles, Coach James and Rev. Ham and good to our four year veterans, James Patrick, Josh Tapper and Andy Syrett as well as the rest of our graduating members, Chris Kelen, Brian Peebles and Chris Tessym. To the returning players...strive to uphold the tradition that is Ashbury baseball.

The Guys

Participating in The Guys has been an experience like no other. From the rehearsals to putting real faces to the men described in the script to the final performance, this experience has changed the way we look at fire halls and firefighters. On a larger scale, it made us realize that there are so many layers to people we fail to see when viewing their public face only. Our time at Station 44 in Barrhaven with Firefighter Terry Brennan and the crew was crucial to the success of the play and to developing the depth of the characters. Actually, meeting the guys and having that first-hand experience of firefighting culture was invaluable to us, and the guys couldn't have been nicer, more down to earth people. It helped us tremendously to put human faces to the play's characters, Bill, Jimmy, Patrick, Barney and Dave, and to really experience what goes on in a fire hall and its kitchen. It really is amazing that the things that go on in each firehouse could be so similar. When a group of people are put together and are subjected to severe stress, a type of bond forms that, regardless of language, age or sex, is unbelievably strong and universal. The personalities of all the men at the firehouse were so honest and open. The trust that they have in one another resonates from the way that they talk and work together. Everyone knows their job and they do them without any questions asked. The great part about a firehouse is there is no phony behavior because there is simply no room or time for it. It's more than just being a team because each person has to trust the others with their own life.

Gunfighter: A Gulf War Chronicle

This year we produced Gunfighters, written by Marc Medoff, which is based on a true story about an American apache flyer in the Gulf War, who accidentally shot two American soldiers. This man is not only discharged, but he and his family are also deserted. The journalist in the battalion discovers that it was not his fault alone and helps him and his family to uncover the truth. To give this play an authentic touch, we had to learn in detail about the Gulf War and the conditions soldiers met there. We even had a General and a Lieutenant come in to teach us how to salute properly and stand correctly. Thank you to Mr. Simpson, who taught us so much in so little time, for being a great director, and helping us bring this play to life.

Debating

2004-2005 was a highly successful year for the debaters of Ashbury College who continued their winning form. There were 25 tournaments and trips ranging from local workshops to national and international competitions. Rebecca Krus and Michael Portner Gartke won the Fulford Cup in the winter, and Michelle Bloodworth, Lianne Fonseca, Lucas Kocia and Jon Brooks all combined their Fulford scores to keep Ashbury in the runner up position at year's end. Caroline Boulos won a first place at the Fulford, also and tied for first place at the French Regionals, going on to compete in the Nationals in Saskatoon with Michael Portner Gartke. Brian Chen won both the Bilingual Regionals and the Bilingual Provincials with Brian Peele winning second place. Our appreciation goes out to Mr. Sinclair and Mr. Boulet who organise English and bilingual debating respectively.

Public Speaking

Public Speakers enjoyed another active and successful year participating in a wide variety of activities across the province. In the fall, Rebecca Glover and Rosemary La Prairie joined delegates from around the world in the International Independent Schools Public Speaking Competition, held at Ridley College in St. Catharines. They participated in drama, interpretative reading, persuasive, after dinner and impromptu speaking and represented the college extremely well in one of the world's elite speaking events. In the spring, Rebecca and Rosemary were joined by new-comer Lucas Kocia at the Norma McCrae Public Speaking Competition, held at Toronto's Branksome Hall, and finished second overall. In Ottawa, Jean-Paul Bevilacqua and Tyler Ham Pong took to the boards to present Shakespearean sonnets and speeches at the English Speaking Union's 'Shakespeare on the Platform' event, and then Tyler travelled to Royal St. George's College School in Toronto to perform at 'An Evening of Shakespeare' in May. Many thanks to our wonderful Brits, Mr. Richardson and Mrs. Baxter, for coaching and accompanying us.

World Affairs

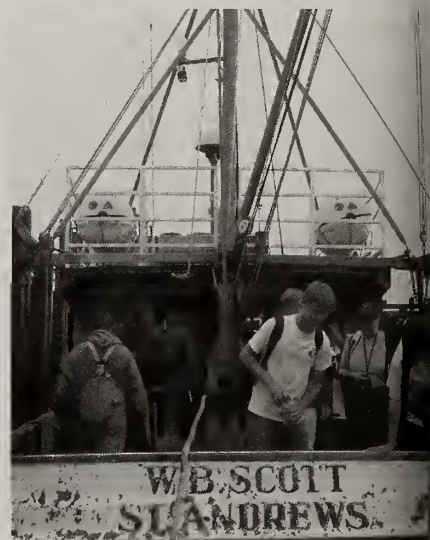

The World Affairs Club received many informative guest speakers this year, including regular speaker Allan Rock as well as Sheryl Kennedy of the Bank of Canada. We also received Julian Murray from CIDA. Issues of note this year included the emergence of China as a global player, as well as the renewed focus on African development. Ashbury also sent fifteen delegates and Ms Lewicki to the annual UCC World Affairs Conference. International Day was an unprecedented success, under the theme of Civil War and International Development in Africa. Many thanks go to Ms Novick and Ms Lewicki for their efforts in arranging for informative guest speakers as well as organising a highly appreciated International Day.

Model UN

The Model UN club engaged in two highly successful trips this year with Mr Thachuk. First, a team comprising several first-timers attended the Secondary Schools United Nations Symposium in Montreal in November. It was a small delegation, and it returned empty-handed but smarter and more experienced. In April, some of the more seasoned delegates travelled to the University of Toronto School for the Southern Ontario Model United Nations Assembly (SOMA).

Ashbury Musical

Ashbury put on its first musical in February, 2005. The "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown" cast was Philippe Sly, Annelies Fujarczuk, Corey Arnold, Gretchen Powell, Jeremy Runnalls and Adrian Ebsary. The fabulous band was Natalie Char, Stephanie Park, Naruko Kubo, Rebecca Glover, Lucas Huang, Joey Brothers and Mark Higgins and was conducted by Mr. Merritt. A huge thank you to the stage crew, Mike Lynn, Graham Gwozdecky and Jessica Harden and stage manager Jenny Rushby. The biggest thank you of all to Director Mr. Coles who was the driving force behind this show, making everything run as smoothly as possible (which was not always an easy task) and being a constant source of laughter, focus and determination.

Good Luck to the show next year!

Community Service

This has been a busy year in community service. Along with the usual activities we added several new ones. Buddies is a new project where we have been paired with students who have Downs Syndrome. Students meet for "fun evenings" such as decorating gingerbread houses, getting acquainted nights and going bowling as well as emailing and contacting their buddy on a 1:1 basis. Also this year we decided to get involved with Youth Day Caring. Seventy-seven of us went out on a rainy Saturday to help with various charities such as working at the Food Bank, cleaning parks, working at a Heritage Fair or painting a community center. The retirement homes we helped this year were Colonel By, The Glebe Center, Governor's Way and Rideau Place. Local events such as the Run for Cancer, the National Capital Race, Bon Appetit and Denim Day as well as our school Fashion Show and Musical all had Ashbury students contributing a lot to their community. The number of gold, silver and bronze pins handed out at Assembly proved that our students are truly aware and involved.

On October 18, 2004, we went to Stratford, Ontario to see three plays. We first saw 'Macbeth' which was pretty mediocre. It was the same thing as we had seen before with no evident interpretation; just a lot of stuff flip flopping which didn't hold. 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' was fun to watch and had a different interpretation. It took place in the Amazon with new visual comedy that wasn't originally intended in the real folio version, but would have made Shakespeare proud. 'Noises Off' was a modern British comedy that was hilarious and the most dynamic play we had ever seen. It would have been very difficult to direct, and even more difficult to cue.

The Asbury College Exchange with Asago, Japan

During the March Break, sixteen Ashbury College students traveled to Japan to take part in a unique exchange program with Yasuda Girls' High School in Hiroshima and Asago Middle School in Asago. Our preparation for this trip had begun weeks earlier, when we began to attend noon hour lessons to learn some basic Japanese phrases, as well as the intricacy of Japanese etiquette. In Japan we were received everywhere with great courtesy and kindness. Many people in Japan had worked hard to ensure that the Ashbury students were able to experience some of the most unique and beautiful aspects of Japanese culture. We were introduced to the playing of Japanese musical instruments, the tea ceremony, ikebana flower arrangement, Japanese martial arts, calligraphy, stone seal carving and Zen meditation. Before March break, both junior and senior students at Ashbury had folded one thousand origami cranes, in memory of the children who were victims of the atomic bomb, and as a commitment to peace. We were privileged to be the bearers of the one thousand cranes and to deliver them to Sadako's statue in the Hiroshima Peace Park, with Mark Ouseley making the presentation speech. (The event was broadcast on Hiroshima TV, and reported in the Japanese press.) After Hiroshima, we traveled to Asago and met our home-stay families, most of whom showered us with gifts and attention. Being able to live with a Japanese family gave us insights into

Japan that you simply don't get as an ordinary tourist. We also attended some classes at Asago Middle School and gave a presentation at the school assembly. Highlights of the Asago stay was a visit to Himeji castle (a world heritage site) bus trip into the Japanese alps, where we visited a twelfth century temple with magnificent painted screens. On a lighter note, we stopped at hot springs where you could step straight from the snow into naturally hot water. (Amazingly, none of the Ashbury students got into too much hot water on the trip.) On our last day in Asago, we were guests at a great "sayonara" (good-bye) party. Our final few days were spent in Kyoto, the ancient cultural capital of Japan. Here we visited Japanese gardens, temples, and shrines that were awesome in their tranquility and beauty. This exchange brought Junior and Senior School students together, which was a (surprisingly to some) great feature. Also noteworthy were bullet trains, Piotr's white umbrella, the bowling Rev organized as a change of pace for temple-viewing, and Mrs Duschins stern glances at gigglers during the meditation.

Spain

Spanish Exchange

On March 12, 2005, a group of 14 students flew to Madrid, Spain for a 17-day exchange. Ms. Gomme and Ms. Sosnowska accompanied us. After a long stop over in Philadelphia, where we almost flew to Frankfurt, we got our first glimpse of Madrid and our host families. During the first week, we toured Madrid and saw famous sights including the Senate, El Palacio Real, Los Jardines de Sabitini and the town of Toledo. During the second week, our host Colegio Mirabel had the week off for Holy Week. We went with our host families and participated in typical Spanish activities including parades, going to the beach in Barcelona and feasting on Chocolate Con Churros. On the way home, it was very hectic through the Philadelphia airport. We managed to catch the plane on time and arrive safely in Ottawa with almost all of our luggage. We would like to thank Senora Rajani for organizing the trip, Ms. Gomme and

Ms. Sosnowska for accompanying us and especially Rafa and Mrs. Caroline Farningham for coming with us on our tours.

Natasha Turner

Costa Rica

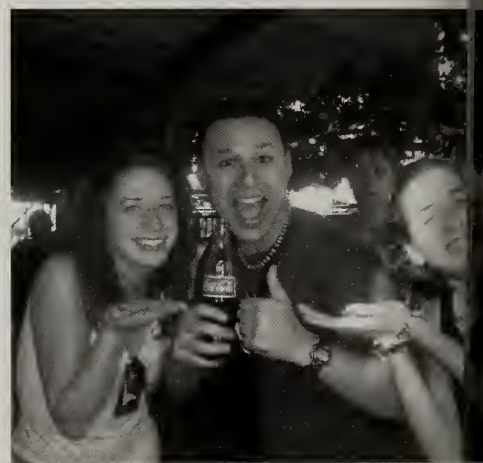

During the 2005 March Break, 11 Ashbury students were fortunate to have an ecological, educational, and environmental experience. Each day was a new adventure as we trekked through rainforests, observed active volcanoes, snorkeled in coral reefs, toured pineapple, sugar, and coffee plantations, basked on beautiful white-sand beaches, zipped lined through the cloud forest canopy and paddled along river rapids. They were able to tour on horseback, by boat, and by aerial trams; they dunked in ocean waves, and volcano heated hot spring waterfalls. It was truly an adventure each day.

Ashbury students were able to visit the SOS Children's Village school, getting sense for international students who are working to overcome poverty by getting the best education possible. They were motivated to work on fund raising upon their return to try to help augment the meager library resources at the school.

The fearless among the travelers even got to wade in the early morning's gentle surf amongst the stingrays hunting for their morning meal and late at night lured tarantulas out of their nests in the ground to be held by hand.

All participants had a great time and many stories to tell about this incredible adventure.

Yearbook

The year 2005 has been filled with exciting happenings at Ashbury College. From the school picnic, the opening of the Great Hall, and the lunch time house events, to excellence in our sports teams, coffee house, drama, and spring concerts, this year has given everyone at Ashbury a chance to excel. It has been a year of challenge and triumph for those creating this yearbook. To the many contributors, from sharing photographs to giving of time in the actual creation of pages, we thank you! Special mention must be made of the core of students whose time given was invaluable. Sabriya Karim, Ian Turner, Jessica Harden, Dawn Zambonini, Annelies Fujarczuk, Michelle Choynowski, Muditha Galle Kankanange, Tom Grey, and Chris Toller. Mrs. Matthews helped by spending many long hours taking photographs for our use. Thank you to all of you for helping to create this yearbook.

Retirements

Mrs. Jane Kennedy

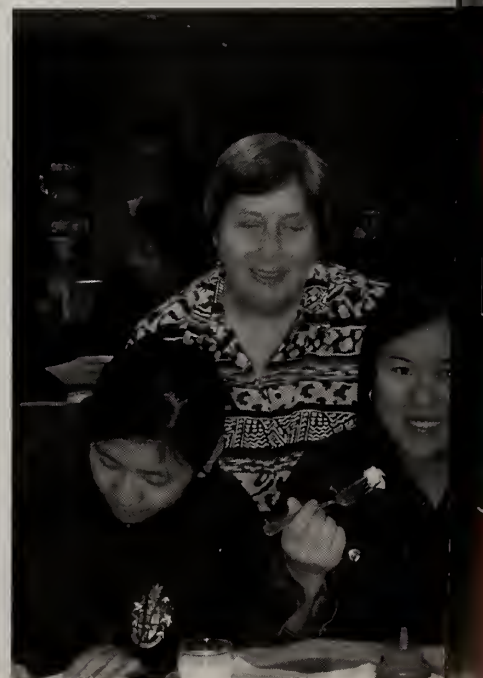

1973-2005

Jane Kennedy grew up in Ingonish, Nova Scotia, and earned a business degree from the University of Mount Saint Vincent. Headmaster Bill Joyce hired Jane as a full time teacher in 1973. As Tony German pointed out in his history of the school, having Jane in the Senior School widened the credit options that could be offered to Ashburians, as well as the female students from Elmwood who came to Ashbury for shared courses. Jane's involvement with girls at the school grew and she was a vital contributor to the arrival of female students at Ashbury in September 1982. That introduction of girls to the school was critical and the school was indeed fortunate to have Jane to help manage the process. Throughout her career at Ashbury College, Jane Kennedy's focus was always on the students. When she became head of boarding, she basically adopted 85 students for a year. Jane cared and worried about her boarders and was always ready to lend a willing ear to their concerns. As Jane returns to her home in Nova Scotia, her colleagues, her students, and all her friends wish her a long retirement filled with good health and happy memories.

Ms. Sharon McKay

Ms. Sharon McKay came to Ashbury in September 1983 to be the weekend nurse. This was the first year we had girls in boarding. Two years later, when Mrs. Angus retired, she accepted the full time position in the Infirmary. After eight years and needing a change, she left for three years to work in the private sector. In 1995 she was offered a position in the girls' residence and weekend nurse in the Health Unit and so returned to Ashbury. Now she feels it is time for another change and, as a result, will be returning to her roots in Cape Breton. Ms. McKay has enjoyed the variety and challenges of working with the students and staff at Ashbury and wishes everyone the best of luck in the future.

Grade Five

Grade five had a very busy fall and one of our favourite activities was planting trees. The class used the land they reclaimed last year, behind the head master's house, and planted five young trees. Along with the grade fours, the boys built birdhouses which will house different species at Cushing's Retreat and here at Ashbury.

Camp Otterdale...

There is no better way to start the new school year than to spend three days at Camp Otterdale. With so many new students entering at grade 7, this trip is a wonderful opportunity for all of us to get to know each other. In fact, one of the activities, the identity challenge, demonstrates just how quickly the boys learn all the names. On these pages we see several of the activities that fill each day and night. From shelter building to ghost stories and paperbag dramatics there is never a dull moment. Of particular interest is the early morning dip when we see just who has completely lost their mind! The food is great, the company is even greater. Many thanks to Mr. King, the driving force behind this adventure, and to all the other staff members who help to make it a great success year after year.

Making Friends

Grade Six

Back Row: Omar Karim, Dumaresq de Pencier, Tony Haddad, Nicholas Allen Middle Row: Timothy Lo, Ryan Aimers, Andrew McIntyre, Brandon Traversy, Justin Lee, Cameron Davis, John Funston, Mr. Guy Valentine Seated: Gregory Cheung, Daniel St. Cyr, Geoffrey Timmons, Darius Lee, Alexander MacDonald, Tan Ho

"I think I'm turning Japanese, I think I'm turning Japanese, I really think so."

Seven A

Clockwise: Jacob sprouting a new look; Eric seems happy about something; Dylan hard at work; Alexander looking as innocent as he can look. M. Amine's class is full of interesting people.

Fall Olympics...

The ever-popular Fall Olympics is always a great way to begin the Fall Long Weekend! The weather, as you see from the photos on these pages, was wonderful and the contests - soccer, ultimate and racket sports - were hard fought. The 7/8 champions were the Wizards, followed by the Goblins, Dragons and Hobbits. The 4/5/6 winners were the Goblins, followed by the Wizards and the Dragons and Hobbits who tied for third. Many thanks to Mr. Mackinnon and the House Captains for their efforts.

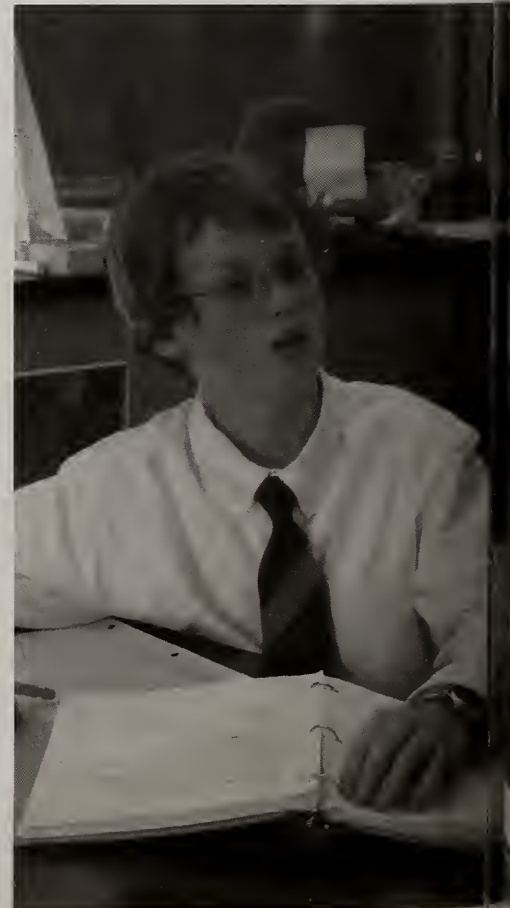

Friendly Competition

Clockwise: Ben Abonyi writing up something of importance; "Pop", Alexander, and Jacobo are collaborating on an obviously important project; Ryan listens to importance words form his teacher; Stephen seems to be overloaded with important books to read. Mrs Boyd's class is no stranger to things of importance!

Seven P

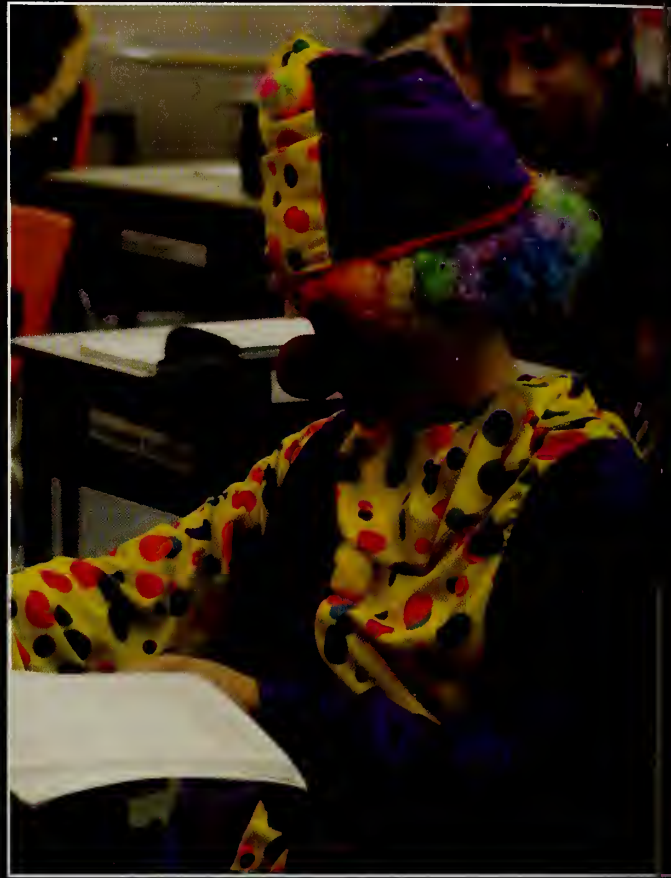

Back Row: Harry Willis, Jacob Waters, Harley Smallwood, Matthew McLean, Steven Koutsomitopoulos Middle Row: Carl

 Morrison, Alexander Weinstein, Christopher Cadham, Nicholas Scrivens, Omar Murray, David Gaty
Present: Sebastian Tejera

Clockwise: Charlie Wright is happy about something; Ian Cameron and Adam Burke are, if anything, even happier; David Scrivens and Taylor are happy too, but seem to be more subdued about it; Travis Lo is just happy to be surrounded by so many cheerful people and Ms Boyd must have a secret formula to keep her boys in a good mood!

Eight M

Running...

Running is part of the Ashbury tradition. Whether down the halls (discouraged) or across the fields, our boys are famous for their fleet feet. We use our boundless energy to raise money for the United Way; to represent the school in local competition; and as a means of garnering house points. Sometimes, we even manage to pump up the boys' enthusiasm by providing a prize pumpkin! On these pages we see various examples of our runners in action.

Clockwise: Jeremy Ouseley deep in his academic responsibilities; Matt Beck enjoying an aspect of his studies; Peter Leenan obviously receiving good news about his grades; and Malcolm Armstrong putting pencil to paper. Obviously Mr. Street has trained his class well in the importance of academic excellence!

Junior Staff

Clockwise: Mrs. Boyd as a flygirl; and Ms. Short as a candy bar; Ms Lobb is our Fairy Godmother; Mrs. Arbuckle; Mme Morel as Miss Marple! Mr. Street missed this page, but he will pop up elsewhere in this yearbook. The Junior Staff is a fun-loving bunch as you can see. We need to keep our sense of humour as you can imagine!

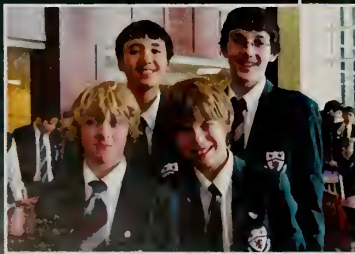

A Host of Houses...

Dragons are well captained by the fiery leadership of Ian Cameron, John Conway, Ben Ogonek, and, for Grade 7, Jacob Fitzgerald.

Dragons

The Hobbits are the defending champions, and the pressure is on for Captains Kai Cheng, Jeffrey Black, Bobby Kelly, and Brendan Manley of Grade 7s.

Behaviour

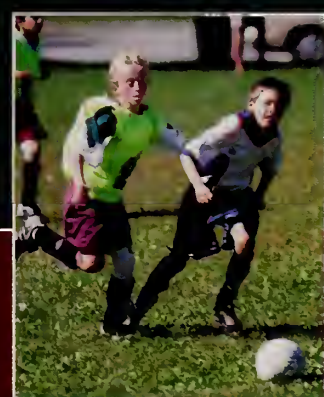

The pain of a lost NHL season was tempered somewhat by the availability of basketball here at the College. U12, U13, and U14 teams travelled to Montreal, and also hosted tournaments here at Ashbury. The U13 participated in the CAIS Championship in Aurora, and although we did not win, we did defeat the host school, SAC, in our opener. The U14 won the Ottawa Independent School championship posting an undefeated season. The pain of a last second loss to SAC in our U14 tournament and the U12 winning its tournament were memorable. All things considered, this was a most successful season.

Soccer...

In the fall, soccer is king at Ashbury. We have teams at all levels from 4 to 8, and Ashbury players travel across the country to represent the school. This year, the U-13 came within one goal of winning the National title; our U-14 won the Bishops' Tournament (as usual) and the podsters played with vigour both here and in Montreal. Of particular note, was a combination grade 4 Ashbury-Elmwood team that played at the Thunderdome. The sportsmanship and good times were always up front.

Out & Beyond

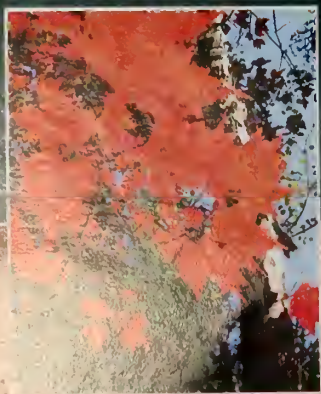

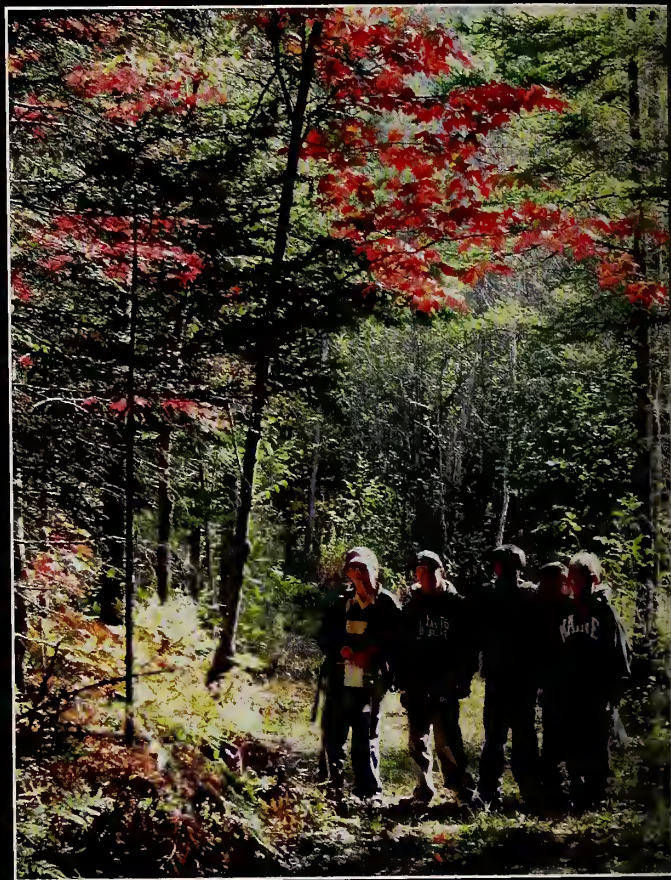

Part of the educational experience at Ashbury is not at Ashbury! We like to take advantage of all the great opportunities that are available in and around the National Capital. On these pages we see just two of the many off campus learning experiences: the grade six overnight to the Space Camp, and the grade eight nature excursion.

Take me to your

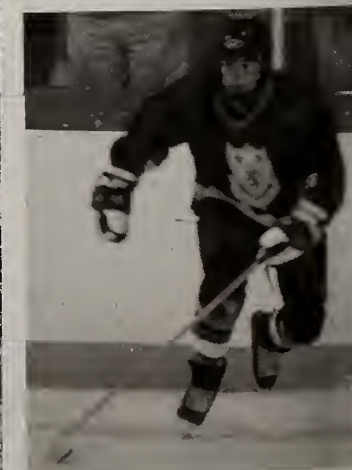

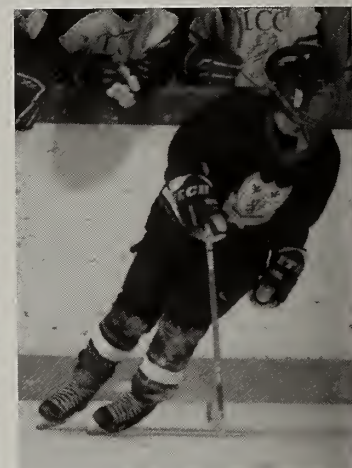

The LEED program continues to flourish and it has expanded this year to include the grade fours and fives and the house captains. The year began with nature hikes, tree planting, and the clearing of the Sacred Grove up at the Cushing Retreat. Winter was exciting as the boys learned some survival skills and experienced the thrill of dogsledding and snowshoeing. The Cushing family has helped the boys develop a greater understanding of and a profound respect for their natural environment.

U14

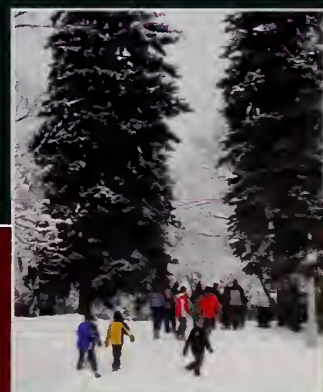

Hockey at Ashbury is not as intensive as some other sports, but this does not mean that we do not take our hockey seriously. The team, made up of recreational players and a few "ringers" from other sports, played two tournaments. One was at UCC, and was part of the school trip to Toronto; the other is the LCC tournament and we won the consolation final there. A good time was had by all.

Whiteouts and ...

Winter, ah winter, with her many and varied charms. It may be cold outside, but our hearty young men are more than willing to embrace the challenges of the season. As seen on these pages, there are many ways to appreciate the opportunities that winter throws our way: skiing, tubing and boarding, fort-building and just hangin'. Highlights always include Friday Skiing, Winter Activity Day and canal skating. Thanks to the staff who help to make all these possible.

Wipeouts

Winter Olympics

Ashbury enjoys many wonderful activities, and the annual Winter Olympics is always a highlight of the second term. With our new facilities, the Junior School was able to showcase a variety of exciting sporting activities, but regardless of the sport, the Dragons dominated gaining maximum house points in both the 4-5-6 and the 7-8 competitions. Several of these exciting events are showcased on these pages.

Toronto ...

In January the grade fives and the hockey team trundled off to Toronto for three days of fun and excitement. There were hockey games to play and knights to dub, feasts to consume, jousts to watch and museums to visit. While the grade fives debated at Queen's Park the hockey players got stock tips from Bay Street. Although we were deprived of watching the Senators play this year we did get to pose with the coveted cup of Lord Stanley. Thanks to Ms Lahey, Mr. King, Mr. Storosko and our UCC hosts.

The Play is

Drama is one of the most popular activities at Ashbury. Whether in class or on stage, students love to get in front of a crowd and strut their stuff. Under the direction of Mrs Boyd, we have seen a number of successful dramatic presentations. But, it does not end there. Mrs Lahey's grade 6 class puts on their own version of The Hobbit as a puppet play. The Greeks are not forgotten as drama is an important part of the Greek Day activities. On these pages we see several examples of our dramatis personae.

the Thing

Sweet Spring Sports

Ah, sweet spring, when a young man's heart turns to...spring sports! We Canadians are a hearty bunch, but give us a warm spring day and we will relish in it. At the school, rugby is, obviously, the featured spring sport, but, as these pages show, a number of other sporting ventures are at the disposal of our young men. City champions in badminton, hip hop hipsters, rope climbers, biker gangs, water babies, golf swingers, and racketeers are just some of them.

Rugby

Ever since Ms Boyd arrived at Ashbury, we have had an unending string of success at rugby. This season was certainly no exception. The boys are so well schooled in the fundamentals of rugby that they are always able to pull out a win against boys their own age, and, usually, against older boys as well! There were a lot of "Mr. Big" winners again this year. These photographs show just how intense the game is.

Rules

Public Speaking

The "gift of the gab" has always been a strength in the Junior School. From Braden McDonald winning debates to Mr King's history class re-debating Confederation, we always seem to be talking up a storm. Among the many public speaking activities are the Shakespeare Reading Contest, Public Speaking Competition, and Debating Club. On these pages we see a whole constellation of good public speakers. As always, many thanks to all the judges and teachers who make all this possible.

Musical

The music programme at Ashbury is awesome! The Christmas Concert, the House Music Competitions, the Spring Concert, or just music around the school are all part of the rich musical tradition of Ashbury. Mr. Merritt, and our visiting student teacher, Ms Mason, did a wonderful job. The Junior Band represented the school at the Kiwanis Festival (winning Silver), and many of our students won individual awards. As the pictures here show, music is everywhere at Ashbury.

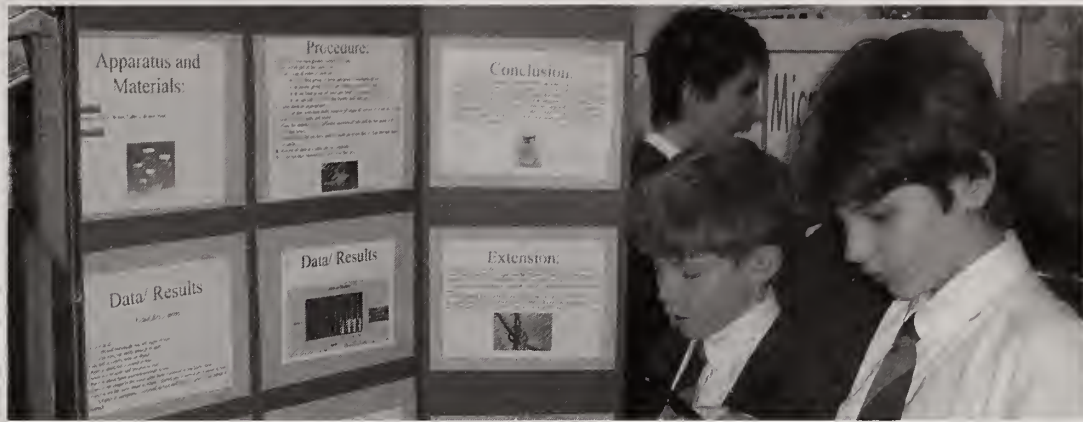

Moments

All in a Day

To capture a year in two pages is of course impossible, but on these pages we see some of the day to day activities of the Junior School. Whether we are challenging chess Grand Masters, quietly reading, writing examinations, building bridges, getting together, hangin' out, cheering on, or just chillin' it's "all in a day". Of special note on this page are the Junior School "lifers" (bottom). The collection of shoes is from Track and Field Day which was, as you can imagine, quite muddy! So, don't let anyone try to convince you that Ashbury is just about homework and classes. There is always something special every day, and on all days here at Ashbury!

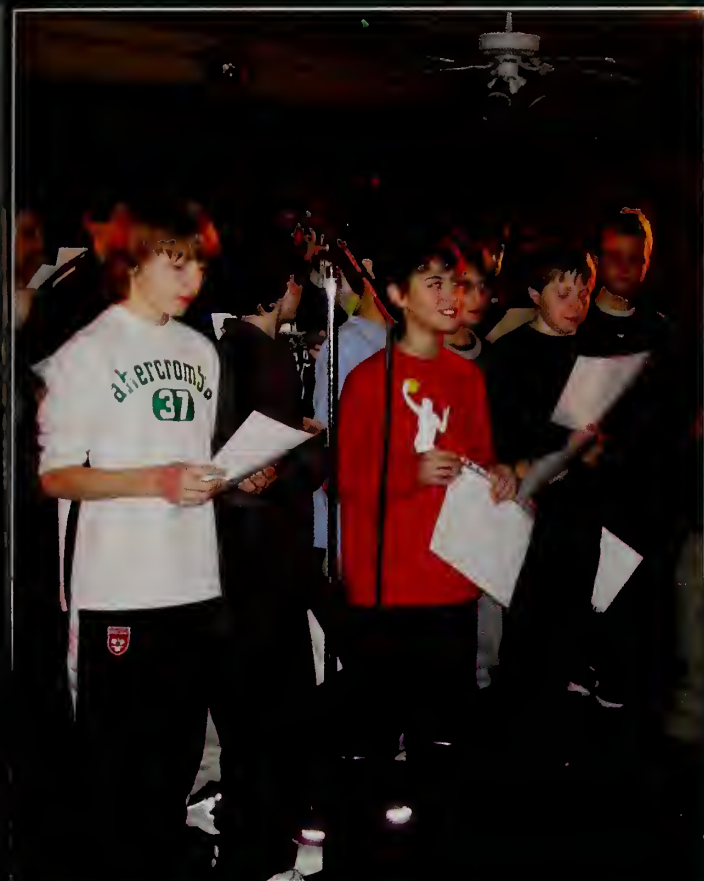

Quebec Capers ...

De nombreux voyages, tous aussi extraordinaires les uns que les autres, ont ponctué le programme de français tout au cours de l'année. Commençons par les 4, 5 et 6e années qui ont voyagé dans le monde imaginaire des trois pièces de théâtre présentées au CNA. Les 7e années, quant à eux, se sont laissés transporter dans l'univers des légendes canadiennes dans la pittoresque région de St-Donat. Ils ont pu s'amuser en français à travers toute une gamme d'activités hivernales. Et les 8e années, se souviendront de leur séjour au cours duquel ils ont redécouvert le passé, arpentant les rues historiques de la ville de Québec. Musées, visites guidées et fantômes d'antan auront su les captiver.

Voyages Extraordinaires!

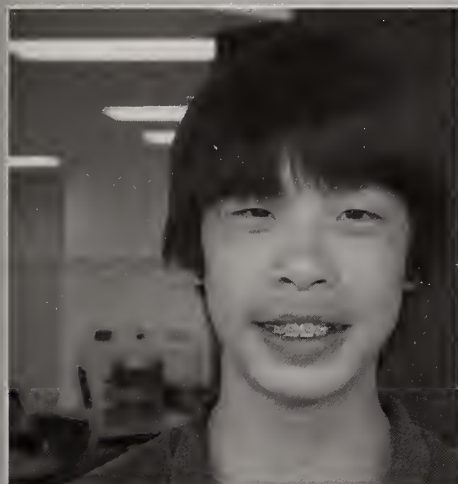

Community Spirit

The Junior School is a happy place (usually), and part of what makes it so happy is the myriad of community activities. Be it Grade Four raising money with their book sale, Grade 7/8 dances, Fun Runs, Spirit Week activities, or individual efforts to help the community, we are constantly raising our profile and our spirits. None of these would be possible without the tremendous contributions of so many student leaders and dedicated teachers. It's all part of what makes the Junior School such a special place.

Parody of Trees

I never thought that I would see
 A school that's just like Ashbury
 With uniforms and dress down days
 And corridors that fit a maze

In math and English, much to do
 No time for fun when I am through
 An hour's drive to go each way
 Which gives me now a chance to say

Though poetry, I kind of like
 I'd rather ski or take a hike
 But overjoyed I'll be to take
 The thing that I need most - March Break

Bobby Kelly 8B

Laketown Attack

As buildings burn
 And fires blaze
 The child's scream
 Cuts through the haze

The fearful shape
 Flies through the sky
 No hope is left
 The end is nigh

His scales are red
 As hard as gold
 Beneath his tail
 The buildings fold

The people run
 And Smaug pursues
 It seems as if
 Laketown will lose

A lone person
 Stands in the gloom
 As a thrush talks
 He stares at doom

He pulls his string
 With all his power
 He looks at Smaug
 And at him glowers

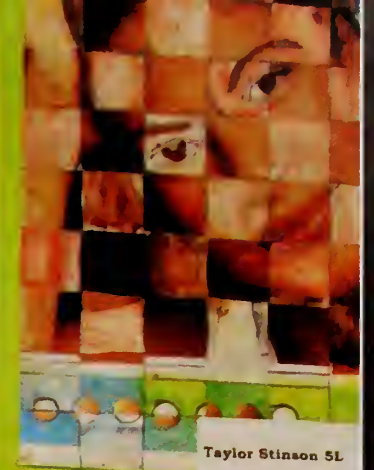

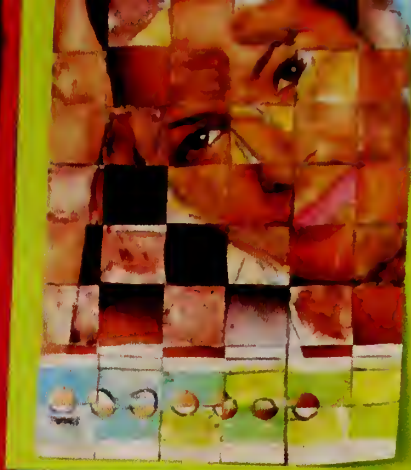

He lets it go
 The arrow flies
 It hits the beast
 The dragon dies

And down he falls
 Into the sea
 Smaug is dead
 Laketown is free

On the Fast

Without question, one of the highlights of the year is the annual Track and Field Day. After two gruelling days, we determine who the winners are, and which House will emerge as the Champion. This year, the outcome was even more significant as the overall House Champion would be determined by how the houses did on the Day. As you can see, there was a wide variety of events, and a lot of true grit displayed. This year's Alwyn Cup winner was J. Wright shown on right in a photo finish with SJ Hong.

Track . . .

Closing Night

It all comes together on Closing. The months of "toil, sweat and tears" are rewarded with Prizes, Certificates, Plaques, Trophies and whatnot. Once again, this year, we had our star performers (some of them are seen on this page), but Closing is about more than the big winners; it's about celebrating our year, our boys, our parents and our futures. This year's Graduates are setting off to new challenges and (for some) new schools. We have had a great time and created a raft of memories. Good luck!
